

Volunteer Info

Who we are:

Education For All Foundation (EFA) consists of a group of students who strongly believe in the merits of educational equity. The EFA team offers life-changing opportunities by helping others learn invaluable lessons.

About joining EFA:

Joining EFA is not only a responsibility but also a privilege. As an EFA volunteer, you are a vital part of our operation and enable us to influence the lives of countless others. Furthermore, you will also find a close-knit community of like-minded friends at EFA. You will help each other grow as individuals while collaborating to make an impact on others.

Operations:

See our operations page on our website.

Member Commitment and Expectations:

Members will join one of the following teams: teaching, curriculum, marketing, and financial. We expect every volunteer to communicate effectively within their team and fulfill their responsibilities. Further expectations will be communicated by the team leader.

All volunteers must also agree to and follow our code of ethics.

Executive Positions:

At the end of the school year, applications for leadership positions will be open. EFA values leadership, passion, and teamwork, and will select volunteers that will entirely dedicate themselves to our mission.

Current Execs:

Curriculum & Teaching Leads - Hannah Jian, Harvey Wang, Gloria Li

Marketing Leads - Jasmine Wang, Laura Pei, Melissa Qian

Financial Leads - Shawn Chen, Alex Hu
